

Westchester County's

Earth Day

Sunday, April 13, 2008

Celebration

Andrew J. Spano, Westchester County Executive
County Board of Legislators

Westchester County's
Earth Day
Celebration

Sunday, April 13, 2008

11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Kensico Dam Plaza, Valhalla

Free admission and parking

Info (914) 864-PARK • www.westchestergov.com

Part of Westchester's Earth Day observance, which also includes the annual Pitch In for Parks volunteer spruce up of the county parks. Call for details.

*Presented by Westchester County's Parks Department and Department of Environmental Facilities Recycling Office
In conjunction with the county's Global Warming Task Force*

Discover ways that you and your family can be environmentally friendly!

- Live music with...
Annie and the Natural Wonder Band
- Alternative fuel vehicles exhibit - cars, trucks and buses
- See Westchester's "Veggie Van"
- Discover practical ways to green your home the easy way
- Lawn and gardening Q&A with Cornell Cooperative Extension of Westchester County
- Backyard composting tips - free compost to take home
- Bring your plastic bags for recycling
- Cell phone recycling - bring your old cell phone!
- Presentation of the Westchester County Recycling Awards

All of the carbon generated by this event has been offset by Friends of Westchester County Parks and NativeEnergy, Inc.